I can't believe that we are already well into September and as I write this we are starting to see the nights draw in, along with some very changeable weather!

As the nights have started to draw in I thought now would be a good time to remind everyone to adopt the 9pm Routine. This simple initiative, and some might say common sense approach to crime prevention was started in the USA. The 9pm Routine revolves around people getting into a habit of checking cars are locked, secure and valuables removed, any outbuildings/sheds are locked up and secured, and all windows and doors are locked and secured before settling in for the night. It is normally the simple things that work so why not adopt the 9pm Routine today and don't give opportunist thieves an easy target.

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA

It has been a very busy summer period for your local Beat Manager and the wider Local Policing Team. As well attending community engagements and hosting street surgeries local officers have also carried out our #ParkWalkTalk foot patrols in and around the Hunstanton and wider parish areas.

Please do remember to make a note in your diary for our next SNAP meeting, which will be held online via Microsoft Teams. You can get the link to join this meeting from the Engagement Officer at Paula.Gilluley@norfolk.police.uk. This meeting will take place on 6th October at 7pm and is an opportunity for you to speak with a member of the local policing team, hear updates on our current priorities and take part in voting in our next priorities. For those of you who cannot make the meeting, remember you can also raise any local concerns with your Beat Managers at SNTHunstantonandBurnham@norfolk.pnn.police.uk
